

S. A. Petullo/Client Release Form

Your personality and character may be analyzed through the science of graphology and/or numerology and astrology by S. A. Petullo Corporation as part of our decision-making process. Graphology, numerology, and astrology are sciences and decades of empirical research have shown them to be valuable, nondiscriminatory methods to evaluate human personality traits. Graphology, numerology, and astrology can display, among other things, a person's talents, desires and abilities.

Decisions will not be made based only on the results of the graphological and/or astrological and numerological analysis, but in conjunction with the interview process, decision-maker observations and other information.

By signing below, I hereby release S. A. Petullo Corporation and its associates of any liability based upon their findings or recommendations.
